The Strike at Shoenberger's Mills Declared Off by the Men.

MANY OF THEIR PLACES FILLED.

Imported Glassworkers Stopped When Landing at New York.

NEWS OF THE GREAT LABOR WORLD

The strike at Shoenberger's mills has been declared off by the men and the works herenster will be run independent of the Amalgamated Association. Monday night, at a full meeting, it was decided to call the strike off and open up the works, as they term it. Manager Henderson had anticipated the action of the men and waited for them until 10 o'clock when he became tired and went home. The men were so jubitant over the action of the meeting that some of them stopped at Manager Henderson's house on their way home to let him know what had happened, Yesterday morning the committee appointed at the general meeting came to Manager lien-terson and officially announced the matter. It was no surprise to either Mr. Henderson or the firm as they had been expecting this to happen for some days.

As a result of this action there was a general stampede by the men to secure their old positions. Not a few of them were disappointed-new men filling the place where they formerly worked. The firm is positive in the statement that none of the new men filling their positions acceptably will be removed for the old men. One heater, in particular, came for his former position and was decidedly put out when in-formed that it had been filled by a very good man. He was told that there might be some vacancy which he could fill on the night turn. He went away very disconso-late, saying that he did not propose to take a lower position than he had held before. "There is one thing I can say about this strike," said Manager Henderson, "and that is it was conducted in a very orderly manner. I told the firm when it proposed placing officers on guard that it would not be necessary. No one was interfered with and men could come and go as they pleased. It was a very foolhardy strike, taking every-thing into consideration. I went among the men and told them it would be the mistake of their lifetime if they would go out, but their only answer was, principle. A great number of the men who worked here will have to go elsewhere for positions for the new men have taken their places."

One of the strikers who was applying for work said: "It was the most complicated strike I ever heard of. I don't think if you were to talk for six years you could convey to me an intelligent reason why we came out. I have grown up in this mill and can say that there is not a firm in the country which treats its employes as well as Shoen-

TAKING MEN OUT OF THE MILL

Thirty-Third Street Strikers Doing Success ful Missionary Work,

The strikers at the Thirty-third street mills are still succeeding in getting the men to come out. Through strenuous efforts they at last succeeded in getting one of the Derry Baseball Club to come from the will. His name is Knavin and he comes from Johnstown. He has been working in the 12-inch mill as rougher. A committee saw him to the train yesterday afternoon and bid him a safe journey to his town. Gustav Wraase, a heater in the same mill, also joined the strikers' ranks vesterday. Emanuel Schillo, of the Press Committee, said: "Our taking so many men out of the works is crippling the working very much. One heater had to take charge of three furnaces on the 18-inch mill last night."

GLASSWORKERS STOPPED.

They Came From Germany and Were

Bound for Creighton. August Kruska and Augustus Chivarat, mirror finishers, were prevented from landing at New York yesterday by Special Treasury Inspectors, and ordered back to the ship. Both men came from Germany and were bound for Creighton, and carried letters offering them ten German marks, or the equivalent in American money per day, if they would come over and work in his stablishment. They were not the only suspected violators of the law among the passengers on the Illinois, for an entire party of Bohemians were discovered bound to the glass manufacturing establishments in South Jersey; but the latter had been posted and could not be detained by the officers because of lack of evidence.

Don't Like to Relinquish the Charter. "There may not be such a general stampede for positions at Shoenberger's as some anticipate," said a Shoenberger mill worker last night. "When the men in their meeting decided to withdraw the strike they virtually gave up their organization. A great many men do not relish the idea of giving up their charter which has been held so long."

Rebuilding a Furnace Furnace A of the Carnegie plant at Bessemer is being rebuilt. It will take three months to complete the work.

Too Much loe Cream. C. H. Roher, agent of the Missouri Pa-cific Railway, New Haven, Mo., says: "I suffered a great deal one hot evening last week (July 21). I had caten ice cream for week (July 21). I that catch ice cream for supper, and there seemed to be an internal conflict going on. A traveling man said he had something in his grip at the hotel that he believed would relieve me, and produc-ing a small bottle of medicine gave me a dose. I felt better, and in a few moments took another dose which entirely relieved me. I believe that such a medicine is worthy of recommendation and that it should be kept in the house during the summer. The bottle was labeled Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoza Rem edy." For sale by druggists.

Origin of Visiting Cards. As with many other instances the inven-tion of visiting cards came from the Chinese, and dates back as far as the seventh century. The first introduction of Camellia four was made by the Marshall Kennedy Milling Co., who started into the milling business 40 years ago. All this time has been devoted to improving the quality and reputation of their high grade flour. Camel-lia to-day stands for the best, purest, rich-est and most regular family flour in the world. Try it.
